

Terrell Smith, Family Connection Network Case Manager

Terrell Smith is a dedicated professional committed to making a positive impact on the lives of families and children. In her role as the Family Connection Case Manager at Prevent Child Abuse Indiana (PCAIN), she brings a wealth of experience and expertise gained during her extensive tenure as a Family Assessment Worker with The Villages' Healthy Families program.

Terrell's passion for supporting families extends beyond her professional life. She has spent a total of eight years as a home visitor, demonstrating her commitment to fostering healthy family dynamics and providing the necessary resources for growth and development. Her in-depth knowledge of family dynamics, child development, and community resources equips her with the skills needed to address the unique challenges faced by the families she serves.

Terrell's dedication to creating a positive impact extends to her personal life as well. Outside of the office, she finds joy in spending quality time with her husband, two adult children, and her two pre-teens. Her strong family values not only enrich her professional approach but also contribute to her understanding and empathy when working with the families she supports.

Terrell's comprehensive background and genuine passion for family well-being make her an asset to the PCAIN team. Her collaborative spirit and commitment to empowering families align perfectly with the organization's mission to prevent child abuse and strengthen the community's support network.
