

SAFE HAVEN

No one has to abandon an infant. The Indiana Safe Haven Law enables a person to surrender an unwanted infant anonymously without fear of arrest or prosecution.

A parent, family member, friend, minister or priest, social worker or any responsible person may give up custody of a baby less than 60 days old to an Indiana...

HOSPITAL

LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

PHYSICIAN

FIREFIGHTER OR AT A "SAFE BOX" LOCATED AT SPECIFIC FIRE STATIONS

NURSE

PARAMEDIC OR EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN

OR OTHER PERSON WHO PROVIDES EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

- ✓ As long as there are no signs of intentional abuse on the baby, no information is required of the person leaving the baby. Any knowledge of the date of birth, race, parent medical history, child's health or anything that would be useful to the child's caregiver would be greatly appreciated (such as diabetes, HIV or other family medical history).
- ✓ Once the baby is examined and given medical treatment (if needed), the Indiana Department of Child Services will take the baby into custody through Child Protective Services where it will be placed with a caregiver.
- ✓ Parents can receive free counseling and discuss all types of options regarding their situation by calling the National Safe Haven Hotline 1-866-992-2291 or online at www.SHBB.org. They may also call the 2-1-1 Resource Line or 988 Mental Health Hotline.

LEARN MORE

For more information, visit the National Safe Haven Alliance in Indiana website at www.nationalsafehavenalliance.org.

ABOUT US

Prevent Child Abuse Indiana is dedicated to preventing child abuse and neglect. In doing so, we make Indiana a safer, better place for our children.

Together, prevention is possible.

www.pcaain.org